Combo Tour 3 - Mayan Sites and Volcanoes

Discover the fascinating Mayan civilization! Visit the archaeological site of San Andrés, a very important political and ceremonial center, with several structures used by the governors of this civilization. In this important site, there are remains of an indigo mill buried during the eruption of the Playon in 1658. After, visit the archaeological site of Joya de Cerén, declared World Heritage of UNESCO in 1993, also called Pompeii from America. On the site, admire a pre-Columbian agricultural village of Maya preserved remarkably intact under layers of volcanic ash, as the village was buried under the eruption of a volcano around 600 AD. Then have the lunch and visit the Volcanoes National Park.

In the afternoon, admire the beautiful Lake Coatepeque among the ten most beautiful lakes in the world. Lunch in a local restaurant with panoramic views of the lake. Then, visit the Cerro Verde National Park and take a refreshing tour through the ecological trails of the park (about 45 minutes). Cerro Verde is an inactive volcano located at an altitude of 2035 meters and a length of 500 hectares of nature. It has a cloud forest in the crater and its surroundings, with a temperature of between 12 and 18 degrees Celsius. From here you can enjoy panoramic views of the Izalco Volcano, better known as the "Pacific Lighthouse", as the boats were lined with the glowing glow of the lava to reach the port of Acajutla, the Santa Ana Volcano. or the Ilamatepec volcano being the largest volcano in the region, and the beauty of nature in the vicinity of this national park. At the agreed time, return to the port.

Guatemala & El Salvador – Overnight

Duration: 2D/1N | Min.: 14 pax | Max.: 120 pax | Pace: Easy | Price: $370 Usd p.p. in dbl

Day 1:

Embark on a journey from Acajutla port to the neighboring country of Guatemala. After completing the necessary immigration formalities, guided by your tour leader, arrive in Antigua Guatemala, where a delicious lunch awaits.

Explore this colonial gem declared a UNESCO World Heritage site. Wander through its cobbled streets, where you may encounter Mayan locals adorned in vibrant traditional attire, showcasing and offering their exquisite handcrafted wares. Take in the sights of the Cathedral, La Merced Church, the Central Plaza, and other significant monuments. Accommodation will be provided in Antigua.

Day 2:

Start your day with a delightful breakfast before returning by road to El Salvador. Visit the city of Ahuachapán, where you'll explore its central park and learn about El Salvador's republican period and its economic peak during the 19th century, fueled by the arrival of coffee. Enjoy an included lunch.

In the afternoon, delve into the Tazumal archaeological site, the most significant Maya ceremonial center in El Salvador. Explore the ancient ruins, gaining insight into the fascinating rituals and history of the Maya civilization. After the exploration, return to the Acajutla port, concluding this enriching tour.
