

ACAPULCO & THE CLIFF DIVERS

Explore the city of Acapulco on a narrated drive and visit La Quebrada, the home of Acapulco's famous cliff divers.

Visit the most interesting parts of our beautiful resort city. During a stop at "La Quebrada" you will enjoy the world famous high cliff divers, plunging down nearly 130 feet in to a small fracture. After the show a 30 minute stop will be made for those wishing to shop. From a scenic vantage point near Las Brisas Hotel, you can marvel at the natural beauty with which we have been blessed, as well as the man-made additions to the panorama. While you admire the view, your guide will tell you about the history of this area.

Continuing to the outskirts of town, you will pass by the Acapulco Princess Hotel, which was constructed to resemble an Aztec pyramid, the Mayan Palace Hotel which is close by and was inspired in the Mayan culture and the black lagoon, where the original Tarzan (Johnny Weissmuller) was filmed. You will also see many other luxury hotels, the International Convention Centre, residential areas of the permanent residents, shopping centres and the sharp contrasts of the old and new parts of the city.

HISTORICAL ACAPULCO

Your excursion begins with a drive through the old part of Acapulco and into Caleta, where many movie stars of the 1950's owned homes. Stop for a drink at the famous Hotel Los Flamingos where Johnny Weissmuller, John Wayne and Cary Grant once found refuge from the fast-paced life of Hollywood to spend their holidays.

Leaving the hotel, travel to the past at Fort of San Diego, for a visit to the Acapulco History Museum. The fort houses many exhibits and artifacts relative to the beginnings of Acapulco and its subsequent growth. Continue on to the Las Brisas residential area to visit the Chapel of Peace and see the Trouyet Cross. Here, you will admire the most spectacular view of Acapulco Bay.

Your return trip to the pier will take you along the main boulevard of Acapulco, passing many luxurious hotels and restaurants along the way.

ONE DAY TRIP TO TAXCO

You will depart from the dock and travel on the new Acapulco-Mexico Highway to begin the gradual ascent from the lush tropical growth at sea level to majestic sights of mountain vistas and verdant areas under cultivation in the more temperate-zone. Continue through the “Valley of Candelabras” (brimming with majestic cactus plants) and see the “Cañada del Zopilote” (the vulture canyon), while your guide describes the history of the area. Taxco is an old town founded in 1528 by the Spanish scouts in their search for gold and silver. Today, Taxco is still considered an important producer of silver, as you will witness when browsing around its workshops and jewelry stores. Other handicrafts of the region are also available. A visit to the church of Santa Prisca is next and is considered a Mexican baroque architectural masterpiece. A delicious, typical lunch is served and there will be more time for sightseeing, browsing or shopping before the return trip to

Please note: Comfortable walking shoes are recommended, as well as a sweater or jacket for the cooler climate in higher altitudes. Don't forget your camera! The drive to Taxco is 3 1/2 hours each way by van.
