Below you will find details of the stops.

Brief Intro of Malé

Malé is the capital city of the Maldives and where all of the Government offices and judicial branches are based.

Malé is also the financial and commercial capital of the country. Accordingly major government offices, banks and businesses are based on Malé.

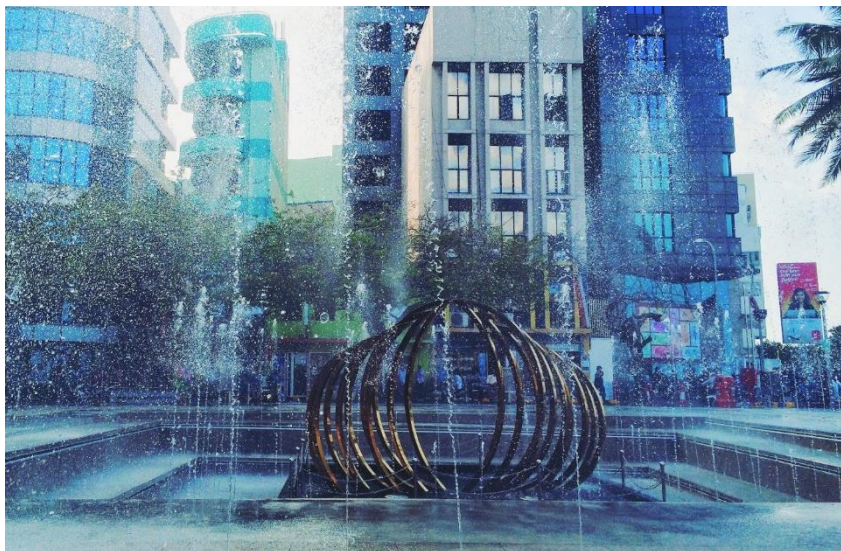

Malé city is also one of the most densely populated cities of the world.

Malé Walking Tour: Islamic Center

The Islamic Centre was opened in 1984, and is a popular attraction for tourists. The Islamic Centre is known for excellent architecture fused with traditional Maldivian and Islamic concepts. The magnificent golden domes of the Centre ornament used to be the skyline of Malé.

Malé Walking Tour: Republican Square

Once you reach Malé you will be greeted by a giant flag located in the Republic Square proudly displaying the national colors of the Maldives. This square has a small park where locals and visitors hang-out. The Republic Square is found close to the north shore of Malé.

Right next to the Republic Square you will find the Headquarters of the Maldivian National Defense Force and Maldivian Police Service. The Islamic Centre is also found next to the square.

Malé Walking Tour: The Friday Mosque

The Friday Mosque is a testament to Maldivian craftsmanship. The mosque was originally built in 1658. The Friday Mosque was mainly built using coral stones. These coral stones display elaborate stone carvings.

A coral stone minaret is located next to the mosque building.

This minaret was previously the tallest minaret in the Maldives. A 17th century cemetery surrounds the Friday Mosque. Gravestones in this cemetery display intricate stone carving. The Friday Mosque is included in the tentative list of UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Malé Walking Tour: Medhu Ziyaarai

This shrine is found a few steps away from the Friday Mosque. According to local legend, this shrine is the final resting place of the Moroccan Islamic scholar who is credited with introducing Islam to the nation.

Malé Walking Tour: Sultan Park

The Park is the best public spot in Malé. Large trees and colorful flowers create a welcoming feel for the visiting guests.

Previously the site housed Maldivian Royal Palaces.

Malé Walking Tour: The National Museum

The National Museum was first opened in 1952. However, the place underwent a major renovation process and a brand new National Museum was opened in 2010. The museum preserves a wealthy collection of items.

Regal dresses and items associated with Maldivian royalty can be explored. A rich collection of Maldivian craftsmanship and artistry is also displayed. You will even have the chance to discover moon rocks in the museum.

Malé Walking Tour: The Fish Market

The Fish Market tour is not something to be missed. This is the soul of Malé – and it's great fun watching the day's catch being brought in from the near fishing harbor. As the name suggests, the Fish Market is a market selling fresh fish and seafood. Though what is unique about this market is that you can find almost any kind of fish here.

The market is very vibrant and colorful and is a great place to watch the life of Maldivian people up-close.

Malé Walking Tour: Local Fruits & Vegetable Market

This local fruits and vegetables market is worth a stroll to see the authentic Maldivians cuisine products. Tropical fruits - papaya, mango, pineapple, banana and many more can be found here. You can also find all the vegetables you can think of, and many types of leaves and greens. This market touches all your senses with sights, smells and sounds.

Malé Walking Tour: Souvenir Shopping Area

One of the best things about traveling is searching for souvenirs – exclusive objects that proudly represent the visiting country.

And Maldives is a destination many people want to re-live. Keep scrolling through the Souvenir shopping street to see the ideal souvenirs and gifts from Maldives that bring the islands to your home.

Malé Walking Tour: Artificial Beach

As the name itself implies, it is a man-made beach and is a haven for the local people as well as foreigners. A long stretch of land reclaimed from the sea forms the beach.

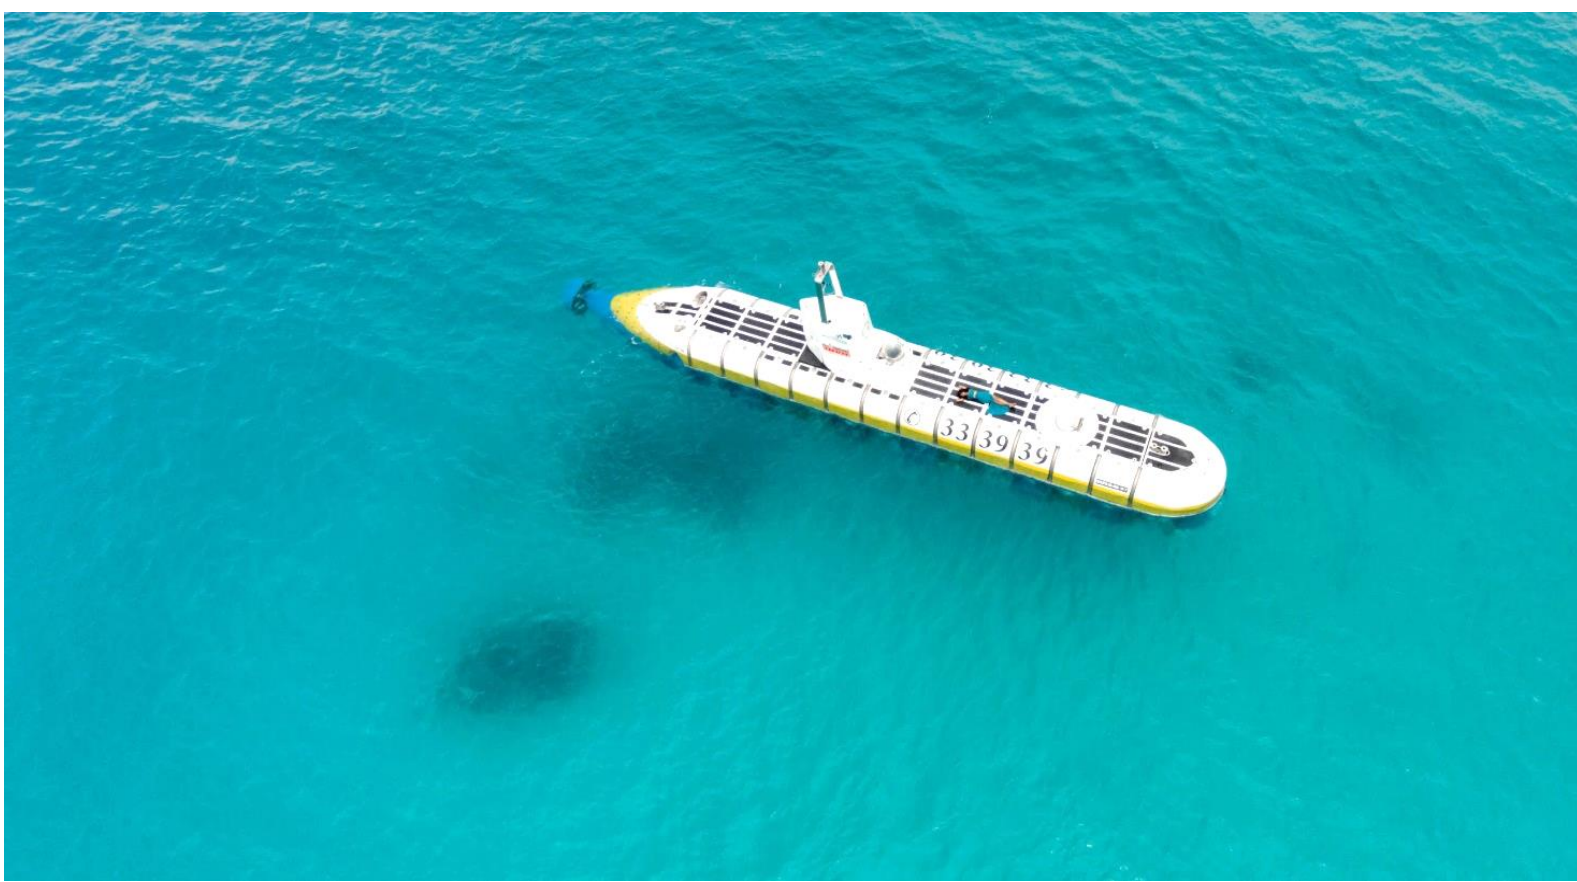

Since it is an open space there are certain restrictions in using swimwear. Café and restaurants are available for the visitors. It is also a place of social gathering where shows and concerts are held. There are also facilities for certain sports.
