Tour Summary:

On your arrival, you will be welcomed at the port by a tour guide. You will then be taken on a tour of the "Macolline", at the entrance to Antalaha village. It is home to the remnants of a primary forest, with rare, indigenous and endemic trees and fauna. It extends over 10 hectares between the Ankavanana River and the Indian Ocean. You can venture for one of three excursions, including a pirogue through rice fields and a brickwork, and end your day with a picnic on the shores of the Indian Ocean. After the tour, you will be taken back to your ship.
