Tour content:

Your journey into the Maya world begins with a 2hour air-conditioned bus transfer that takes you through a scenic countryside tour of the western part of Belize. The west of Belize is considered the best of the interior, as it is the gateway to the Maya Mountains and the lush tropical rainforest of Belize. Your licensed guide highlights the mountainous landscape, culture, history and lifestyle of Belizeans as you make your way to Xunantunich, Maya for Maiden of the Rock. When you arrive, you board a historic hand-cranked ferry that takes you across the Mopan River and is the only means to access the sacred grounds of this ancient city.

Atop the tallest structure at the main temple you will enjoy a panoramic view of Belize as your guide points out Guatemala, which is within eyesight as the border with Guatemala is only 2 miles away. One of the features at this ancient Maya city is the burial chamber discovered at Xunantunich. It is considered to be one of the largest Mayan burial chambers found within the last 100 years and when discovered it had a number ceramic vessels, obsidian knives, jade pearls, animal bones and some other artifacts made of stone.

After you wander across this remarkable Maya temple, your guide will escort you on your bus transfer to your lunch stop in the thriving town of San Ignacio. Here you will enjoy a typical Belizean inspired meal. Before you leave, local arts, craft and souvenirs are available for purchase.

Your journey back to the port allows you time to relax and reminisce your full day adventure that took you back in time to the world of the Maya and the best of the western cultural highlights in Belize.

What we will see:

- Scenic drive to the west country side of Belize
- Archeological Site to Xunantunich – El Castillo one of the tallest Maya structure in Belize
