TOUR DESCRIPTION:

Guided visit to the Torrestrella property, owned by D. Alvaro Domecq, where his bulls and horses graze. It is the private estate of the founder of the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art.

Álvaro Domecq, legend of one (horse bullfighting) and Sherry Wine, a well-known and respected personality across the whole of Andalusia for his career as a rejoneador (a horseback bullfighting master), captured the devotion he feels for his land of Jerez and for his wines by creating in 1999 the Álvaro Domecq, S.L. wine cellar, a hundred-year-old wine cellar that produces an excellent Sherry Wine.

Arrival at the farm and welcome by a member of the family.

Visit to the stables and family museum of three generations of the Domecq in the art of rejoneo.

From a comfortable grandstand you will experience the authentic andalusian way of life.

We will share the history of the Torrestrella family and livestock, the selection and breeding of the Toro Bravo and the dressage of the horses, all to the sound of music.

We show the brave cows with their calves, exhibition of cowboy dressage, the mares in freedom with their foals, exhibition of the Spanish horse in classical dressage and the bulls. After the show our guests will be delighted with the essence of good food and drink.

Obligatory visit on the route through Torrestrella include the wine and some of its most widely appreciated products. Another place not to be missed as star attraction.

For lunch, it can also help you with home made food in generous quantities like the most popular spanish dish, Paella countryside style, made with local seasonal products in a family atmosphere.

The restaurant is very typical, traditional and has a family atmosphere, all very desirable qualities with traditional home cooking.

Come and enjoy a lovely day at spanish countryside style!

TOUR DESCRIPTION:

Admire the naturally beautiful beaches that rim Cadiz as a scenic appetizer of sorts before heading into Old Town for lunch. Many of those beaches have received a Blue Flag designation for being clean and environmentally friendly. Consequently, they are all naturally beautiful as you will discover while pausing at Playa de Caleta. This spectacular stretch of sand in the shadow of San Sebastian Castle is so photogenic that it was chosen as a film location for the James Bond movie "Die Another Day." The aptly named restaurant El Faro – meaning The Lighthouse – stands nearby in the Old Quarter. Being the oldest continuously occupied city in Western Europe, Cadiz exudes history, especially there. Three generations of the Córdoba family have run El Faro since it opened in 1946, and you can expect an extraordinary dining experience. Seafood and fish dominates the menu and is especially satisfying when prepared in a classic Cadiz style. Welcome to El Faro Restaurant in Cádiz where Tradición, Territorio y Familia are united.

Standard bearer of Cádiz gastronomy, in its kitchens the history of five decades have achieved the treatment of seafood with passion and work.

Three generations evolving the tradition of Cádiz cuisine to ensure our diners continue enjoying with the best flavor of their land.

The sea, the orchard, the mountains and the vineyards make El Faro bright due to the magic of Cadiz province. Our guests will have the opportunity of tasting some of their most typical and popular dishes like the shrimps Omelet or Roteña Fish Stew in a emblematic atmosphere.

A Gastro experience you shouldn't miss!
