TOUR DESCRIPTION:

Departing port, board your bus and pass through (no stops included) Corfu's magnificent Old Town, located in a strategic position at the entrance of the Adriatic Sea, has its roots in the 8th century BC. Have the chance to admire town's neoclassical housing stock, partly from the Venetian period, partly of later construction, notably the 19th century. Afterwards, head straight to island's mainland. For your lunch break, stop at Lakones village, a picturesque village right across to Paleokastritsa, the honey pot of the west coast, a small village surrounded by hills and cliffs. An idyllic setting which led British High Commissioner Sir Frederic Adam to popularize Paleokastritsa in the nineteenth century. Enjoy delicious homemade dishes at Golden fox restaurant, a family restaurant offering traditional dishes of local cuisine, using fresh local ingredients for its recipes. Restaurant's veranda, with an astonishing panoramic view of the monastery and green and blue bays of Paleokastritsa, it's the ideal photo spot to take some spectacular photos of island's scenic panorama to remember and carry back home. After your delightful lunch break, ascend your motor coach and head back to port.
