Description: Dubai is the second largest of the seven Emirates and is considered the commercial capital of the UAE and the Middle East. The city is popularly known as the 'City of Merchants' for its long history of trade. Dubai is a unique blend of the East and the West - a fascinating potpourri of oriental charm and western modernity. This tour starts with a photo stop at Burj Khalifa, the tallest building in the world. Moving on to Bastakiya – a historical district in Dubai. Al Fahidi Historical District, commonly referred to as Al Bastakiya, holds the memories of an era that pre-dates the federation of the Emirates. Then move to Al Seef- a 1.8 km waterfront promenade along the bank of Dubai Creek in the Al Fahidi neighborhood of Dubai. Beautiful traditions combine with modern designs at this charming destination, showcasing the city's blend between its proud past and bright future. This is followed by a visit to the aromatic spice souq and the extensive gold souq where you can buy exquisite gold jewelry at prices lower than anywhere else in the world. Before return to the port just have a quick visit of the Deira Perfume souk, strip of stores specializing in popular scents & mix-your-own fragrances in tiny glass containers. At the end of the tour board the coach and return to the Port.

Activity Level – Moderate. Flat surfaces & paved path. This tour is involved walking in order to explore Dubai Museum & Souk, the passengers with wheelchair need to be accompanied by a person for assistance.
