TOUR DESCRIPTION:

This tour will make you discover the famous Carrara marble, from the main techniques of extraction to his own use in the artistic field. In fact it has been a symbol of art and architecture for two thousand years, which also tells the stories, traditions and the daily life of the quarrymen who over time have extracted, transported and worked it. We will leave the port of Livorno with our tour escort by bus and after about 1 hour we will arrive in Ponti di Vara and start a panoramic tour alongside a bendy road by bus. We will then arrive at Fantiscritti to visit the marble quarries. The visit allows to understand the main issues related to marble, from a geological, historical, technical and artistic point of view. But here in Italy a marble cave is not just related to art and history. Thanks to the inside climatic condition, Carrara inhabitants have used the caves for a gastronomic purpose,too. In this tour you will find out what it is! We will have a tasting lunch with local products. After lunch we will head to Livorno with our tour escort. Return to the port.

TOUR DESCRIPTION:

Meeting our tour escort at the pier before heading to Volterra by bus. After about 1 hour and a half comfortably seated on our bus, we will reach Volterra. We will meet our local guide who will introduce us to the secret of the "impregnable" village, already a glorious city in the Etruscan Era.

Nowadays it shows its magnificence in the beautiful and intact medieval historic center and hidden wonders of antiquity such as the Roman theater of the 1st century BC. During our walking tour, we will have the chance to have a look at the theater from above and take some beautiful pictures. A magical place on a high hill with breathtaking views over the Tuscan countryside, rich in crops and excellent wines and cheeses. It will be possible to visit a farm which produce organic cheeses such as Pecorino Balze Volterrane DOP and taste the products immersed in a special location. After our tasting lunch, we will have some free time to relax, visit the stall or buy some souvenir gifts before returning back to the port of Livorno.
