TOUR DESCRIPTION:

The capital of Malaga offers numerous tourist and cultural attractions. One of the most beautiful cities in Spain and one of the most visited in Andalusia. In this experience we will focus on a genuine and authentic gastronomic route and end up with some wines and tapas at Bodega El Pimpi. Emblematic and charming establishment of the city where you will taste typical spanish tapas.

A gastronomic top experience based on the perfect fusion between the genuine and the gastro at the highest level. Exquisiteness watered with the best of environments.

Tapas at the most emblematic winery located in the heart of Malaga "El Pimpi" wich spanish actor Antonio Banderas is one of the owners. Founded in 1971, the Pimpi is one of the wine cellars with most solera in Málaga, where it is possible to enjoy local gastronomy and local wines, but mostly, the tradition and culture belonging to southern Spain.

Its name makes reference to the figure of "Pimpi", a popular character from Málaga who helped crew and passengers of boats that arrived at the Málaga port.

Currently, the wine cellar is a famous meeting point for the famous, both Malagueños and visitors, who recommend us and value our cultural entity and gastronomy of top order in Málaga.

TOUR DESCRIPTION:

Departure from Málaga towards Rincón de La Victoria, until we reach our first stop at the Treasure Caves, located at the town of Rincón de la Victoria. You will be surprised with its beauty.

It's one of the only three caves of marine origin known in the world.

Inside the galleries of the Treasure Cave, remains were found from the Paleolithic and the Bronze Age, as well as samples of Rupestre Art. On a comfortable walk through its cavities, you will be able to enjoy the curious shapes that water has left over millennia. Maybe, if we have some luck, you will find the famous treasure that still remains inside the cave!

We will continue with a brief panoramic view along the coast with endless beaches of spectacular beauty in their natural environment.

Arrival at a privileged venue which you will never forget, where we will taste the most popular wines in Malaga with its pairing... The gastronomy is nice and tasty. You will be able to try our most exquisite and famous local products such as avocado, braised ratatouille, cod and good meats. You can't miss our stars products like ham and cheese.

I would like to explain a bit about Malaga's wines through their regions. In Malaga, we have production in five different areas and we also have two different demarcated areas, or how we say in Spain: denominations of origin or DO.

In 1932 DO Málaga appears, including stills wines made with two grapes, Pedro Ximenez or Moscatel de Alejandría. And we will talk about DO Sierras de Málaga in 2001 including still or sparkling wines and more than twenty different grapes like Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Syrah, Tempranillo, Garnacha or Chardonnay. Moscatel is the most popular grape on this area.

We will start with a wine called Botani, it is one of the first sparkling wines in Malaga. 100% Moscatel and DO Sierras de Málaga. Pale yellow color and fine bubbles. Floral aromas with yellow fruits and citrus. It is perfect for fish, seafood, cold soups or with any starter like our ham and cheese.

We will continue with our second reference, Lagar de Cabrera, 100% Moscatel and DO Sierras de Málaga, this is produced in Moclinejo only 17 kilometers from here. It is clean and bright, straw yellow color with golden reflections. It has a high olfactory intensity, with notes of open white flowers and mineral reminiscences. Very powerful, it shows us all the punch and aromatic power of the Moscatel varietal, with good acidity and a delicate finish.

As for the third wine we will travel to Ronda to try one of its most famous wines. Cortijo de los Aguilares 67% Tempranillo, 24% Syrah and 9% Merlot, this red wine DO Sierra de Málaga stands out for its aroma of red fruits. It is fresh and silky, with a long finish and great personality. To finish with, we will come back to Moclinejo where we will find one of the best sweet wines in Málaga, it is called Viña axarquía. Pale, bright, aromas of ripe fruit, tropical and honeyed notes, floral. Fresh and tasty on the palate.
