PROGRAM	: Philippine Shore Excursion - Manila	DATE	: July 4-6, 2025
VALIDITY	: July 2025	PAX	: Min. 15

Tour Name	Taal Cultural Heritage Tour
Duration	10 hrs & 30 mins
No.Of persons	Min. 15
TourDescription	Taal's undisputed title as the "Grand Lady" of Batangas is attributed to her citizens' noble heroes, the illustrious patriots who contributed a lot to the Philippine revolution against Spain in terms of brains or education and financing the guerilla movement, the making of the Pilipino flag and their beautiful Antillean homes open for viewing and are still well kept. The Ancestral Houses served as living monuments to a once prosperous and the honorable intellectuals (Illustrados) of a bygone era. The Taalenos' socio-political status and the zeal of patriotism will be elucidated by your local tour guide on a leisurely walking tour of this picturesque town for its history to unfold. St. Martin de Tours Basilica Depart pier and proceed to Taal Heritage Town. Your first stop is St. Martin de Tours Basilica, also known as Taal Basilica. Be amazed at their Church- Basilica of 1856 imposed on top the hill, just like Athens's Acropolis's Parthenon, overlooking the whole historic town and Balayan Bay that is connected to the West Philippine Sea or South China Sea. The church's façade is likened to Rome's with 24 columns. The silver altar is the only one of its kind in the Philippines. The church is the biggest in Asia (5,000 sqm), equivalent to five ordinary churches combined altogether. This was purposely built to protect the inhabitants in case of catastrophe like eruptions experienced before that might happen again. Casa Villavicencio or Wedding Gift House Your next stop will be Casa Villavicencio, a pre-1850 ancestral house, this home belonged to Don Eulalio Villavicencio and Gliceria Marcella De Villavicencio , two of the most prominent personalities in Taal. It became not only the refuge of battle-weary soldiers but also served as a secret meeting place for revolutionary leaders, having helped finance the huge expenditures of their revolution. Casa Recuerdo or Paradores de Taal After your tour at Casa Villavicencio, proceed to Casa Recuerdo for lunch. Illagan-Barrion Ancestral House After your lunch, you will now proceed to Illagan-Barrion Ancestral House, the Philippine's very first Camera Museum at the heart of the town. Galleria Taal is definitely a utopia for camera collectors and enthusiasts for it showcase Mr. Manny Inumerable's vast collection of cameras from the late 1800's, 1900's up to date. Leon and Galicano Apacible Museum Your next stop will be Leon and Galicano Apacible Museum, the first museum and the only art deco house in Taal, Batangas, it showcases the life and works of the two brothers—Leon and Galicano Apacible—and the role they played during the struggle for Philippine independence in the last quarter of the 19th century.

	Museo Marcela and Felipe Agoncillo Last stop will be in Museo Marcela and Felipe Agoncillo, the ancestral home of Marcela Mariño Agoncillo, the Mother of the Philippine Flag, was built in the late 17th century. See local demonstration of Barong Tagalog, Taal's most famous classic sheer and lightweight tops, the art of Balisong making and taste of the local peanut brittle of Taal. After the tour, return back to Manila port.

Tour Name	Tombs and Traditions
Duration	3 hrs & 30 mins
No.Of persons	Min. 15
TourDescription	You will depart from the pier for a tour of downtown Manila. You will pass the Planetarium, the National Museum, Manila City Hall and head over the Jones Bridge and past Filipino-Chinese Friendship Arch to Binondo, a typical small Chinese town, referred to as the local "China Town." This district is the center of commerce and trade for all types of businesses run by Filipino-Chinese merchants. It is also famous for wholesale stores and restaurants serving top rated Chinese dishes. You will see the Binondo Church founded in 1596 on your way to the Chinese Cemetery. Manila Chinese Cemetery The Manila Chinese Cemetery is the second oldest cemetery in Manila and was designated as the resting place for the Chinese citizens who were denied burial in Catholic cemeteries during the Spanish colonial period. The dead were buried in fully functional houses with bathrooms kitchens, bedrooms and often air conditioning. Tomb houses of the Chinese Cemetery have front doors that are locked. Every tomb is unique, every tomb has its story to tell, and you can easily spend a lot of time exploring this fascinating place. La Loma You will then head for La Loma, where you will see a narrow road lined with rows and rows of roast suckling pig or lechon cooked over live charcoals. Quiapo Church You will make a photo stop and head for Quiapo Church, famous for the Black Nazarene, a life-size image of Christ believed to be miraculous. Around the church is a fascinating gathering of vendors selling candles and curiosities like amulets and folk cures for obscure ailments.

Anilao Snorkeling Day Tour – June 7 and 8, 2024

Spend a day snorkeling three vibrant sites. See rich and colorful marine life only a couple of hours away from Manila. Private transportation and snorkeling gear included.

The Philippines has the highest marine biodiversity in the world and the country's greatest attractions are found in its seas and oceans. Only 130 kilometers (80 miles) south of Manila is an underwater paradise. Anilao has over 40 dive sites and is the most popular scuba diving destination in the country. But you don't need to dive deep to enjoy the riches of Anilao because the area has several coral reefs that are shallow and ideal for snorkeling. No deeper than two meters (6.5 feet) you can already see a multitude of creatures such as feather stars, damsel fish, sea cucumbers, angelfish, sea squirts and the ever-popular clownfish. A little deeper and you can find giant claims and moray eels. If you're lucky you might even run into a sea turtle.

On this trip we take you to three vibrant snorkeling sites, each with its own different set of marine inhabitants. If you love snorkeling this is the best daytrip that you can take from Manila.

Activities and Trip Highlights:

- Snorkel three rich and colorful coral reefs
- See batfish, puffer fish, tangs, parrotfish, starfish and a host of other fish and sea creatures

Price: $260 USD per person

Group size: 2 to 16

Price includes private transportation, use of snorkeling gear (mask, snorkel, boots, fins), guide, boat and entrance fees. Food and beverage are not included but there is an onsite restaurant in Anilao.

Itinerary

We pick you up at the your Manila dock at 6:30AM and arrive in Anilao at around 9:00AM. We will select the snorkeling sites based on weather conditions, give you a quick briefing, and help you fit your snorkeling gear. Then we hop on a boat and visit two coral reefs, spending about an hour and a half at each site. Your guide will be in the water with you, guiding you through the snorkeling site and pointing out interesting marine life. At around 1PM we go back to shore so you can have lunch at the seaside dive resort that is our base. After lunch we snorkel one more site right from shore before heading back to Manila at around 3:30PM. We drop you off at your ship's dock at around 6:30PM.

Reminders and Recommendations:

- You need to be comfortable in the water to enjoy this trip. If you are not a good swimmer we can provide you with a life jacket but you should not be prone to panicking in the water.
- Respect the marine environment. Our trip leaders are VERY strict about marine protection and will not tolerate any destruction or abuse of marine life or habitat. To be safe, appreciate with your eyes only and not with your hands. This will keep you from inadvertently getting bitten or stung.

Taal Excursion: Taal Volcano, Tagaytay and Taal Heritage Town – June 7, 8 and 9, 2024

Get a magnificent view of an active volcano within a huge caldera, see the country's favorite weekend retreat and visit a historic town that survived the volcano's major eruption.

Taal is the name of a lake, a volcano and a town. Taal Lake is the third largest lake in country and is actually the caldera of a very large extinct volcano. In the center of this lake is Taal Volcano which is very active. A volcano within a volcano, Taal's beauty and uniqueness make it one of the country's must see sights. On this trip we get a spectacular view of Taal Volcano and Taal Lake from Tagaytay ridge, the country's most popular weekend destination.

Just off the shore of Taal Lake is Taal Heritage Town, established in 1572. It is one of the oldest towns in the country and home to Asia's biggest Catholic church as well as a collection of old houses that showcase traditional Filipino-Spanish architecture. The town and its people played an important role in the Philippine revolution against the Spanish and is a great place to learn about the country's history and culture. Taal Town is also known for making the country's best barongs, our traditional formal men's attire, and it is the birthplace of the famous balisong or butterfly knife.

Activities and Trip Highlights:

- See Taal Lake and Taal Volcano, two of the country's must-see sights
- Drive through the beautiful countryside outside Manila
- Visit 19th century churches and houses and learn about Philippine culture and history

Price: $200 USD per person

Group size: 2 to 16

Price includes private transportation, entrance fees and guiding service. Food and beverage are not included but we will take you to a restaurant that serves local specialties for lunch.

Itinerary

We pick you up at your ship's port at 6:30AM and take a 1.5-hour drive from Manila to Tagaytay. The drive involves a winding climb up to Tagaytay ridge and we see fields of rice, pineapples, fruits and vegetables along the way. Tagaytay is actually on the crater lip of the huge extinct volcano and it offers the best view of Taal Volcano and Taal Lake. After enjoying the view we drive to Taal Town. Taal is a very old town established in 1572 that has Asia's biggest Catholic church and a collection of old houses that showcase traditional Filipino-Spanish architecture. We visit churches, old houses and other points of interest in the town and have lunch at a restaurant serving local specialties before driving back to Manila in the afternoon.

As the last line of defense of the Japanese army during the Battle of Manila, the Japanese Cannon which is still installed in Intramuros until the present is the last remaining Japanese cannon that remained.

PUERTA REAL GARDEN

Exclusive gate by the Governor-General and was used for ceremonial events and state occasions, this gate got destroyed during the American Period but was used as prison cell and barracks during the Japanese occupation.

PUERTA DEL PARIAN & ASEAN GARDEN

A gate mostly used by the commoners, Puerta del Parian was named after the Parian de Arroceros where the Chinese merchants lived just across the walled city during the Spanish colonial era. Inside is also a garden dedicated to the Association of the Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) which has statues of valuable people of the organization.

ADUANA

Housed the Customs offices during the 1800s, damaged by the bombings of the Japanese during the Battle of Manila, then was also used by different Government offices such as Bureau of Treasury, Central Bank of the Philippines, Commission on Elections, and others. Destroyed by fire in 1979 and facade restored by National Archives in 1998, now continuously being rebuilt until the present.

PLAZA ROMA

Originally called Plaza Mayor and now recognized as Plaza Roma to honor the Sacred College of Cardinals in Rome following the elevation of the first Filipino Cardinal. This plaza is surrounded by the structures of Ayuntamiento de Manila, where the old city hall of Manila was, Palacio del Gobernador to give an image to the residency of Governor-Generals before, and Manila Cathedral known to be the Mother Church of the Philippines,

FORT SANTIAGO

One of the oldest fortifications in Manila built in 1571, used by the British army as their headquarters, became the headquarters of the Philippine Division of the US Army, and occupied by the Japanese Military in 1942. The fort was named after the Spain's patron saint, St. James.

SAN AGUSTIN CHURCH

This church is the oldest stone church in the country, only slightly damaged in the Battle of Manila being the only structure that remained in Intramuros after the war. It is now known as one of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites that was declared in 1994.
