HALF DAY

Montevideo Bike tour

Type:

For a change of pace, this is the best option: a bicycle tour around Montevideo (as well as other regions of Uruguay) accompanied by Spanish / English speaking guide.

All our Bike Tours around Montevideo are specially prepared for groups/families. We recommend this as a fun, interesting and entertaining way of getting to know the city, learn of its history and have a vivid experience of each aspect of it. Bike-tourism is a different type of guided tourism, and it allows participants to experience the city differently enjoying nature too through this outdoor activity.

Tour goes through the Port area into the Old city, Independence Square, Salvo Palace, Solís Theatre, MERCOSUR Headquarters, Rodó Park, Punta Carretas Lighthouse and Pittamiglio Castle. We will ride along the coast with the 'sea' (River Plate) to one side and stop for photo opportunities along the way. (No inside visits to the venues).

Our goal is to make of each city tour an unforgettable experience, where safety, good-fellowship, fun and acquired knowledge are the main attributes.

Notes: The order of certain sights visited during a tour may change to avoid and/or alleviate congestion at destination. It is recommended that guests wear light clothing, flat comfortable shoes, take water, sunscreen, and a hat. Bicycles, helmets, and mineral water will be provided. Minimum age: 12 years.

Not only has he created an art school, the Universal Constructive, but his work is the highest priced among Uruguayan artists in the world's most important art auctions.

The Theatre, the greatest reference to all scenic arts in Uruguay, opened its doors for the first time the 25th of August 1856 and is strategically located in the historical and cultural area. The tour continues to the Prado area for a visit to the Blanes Museum, a beautiful 19th Century mansion, home to the impressive oil paintings of Juan Manuel Blanes internationally renowned Uruguayan Artist as well as Pedro Figari, Rafael Barradas and others.

Continue your drive to the Visual Arts Museum, the most comprehensive collection of Uruguayan artists since 1850. Their purpose is to treasure, with strict selective criteria, national and foreign works of art, to catalogue and conserve them, in order to illustrate exhaustively the history of national art, emphasizing everything that refers to national art.

Explore like a local

Enjoy the city as if you were a local – go local and visit the different markets, explore by your own. On this opportunity you will be able to taste local snacks and a refreshment, as well as a typical Uruguayan drink.

Depart pier and make your first stop at: MAM – Montevideo’s former Agricultural market. This market was built between 1905 and 1915, located in an area which led to several roads that connected most part of the city. During the first decades of the 19th century, this was where most products that supplied Montevideo could be found. Nowadays, this sample of one of Montevideo’s best architectural works, offers a wide variety of products and services such as: handcrafts, spices, gluten-free products, local pastries, fruits, veggies, meats, restaurants and other.

Continue your drive towards Cordon neighborhood and make your next stop at: Mercado Ferrando. Getting hold of the best Uruguayan craft beers at a good price, enjoying a hot chocolate with churros on a communal table where you can interact with other diners, having an iced tea or tasting origin coffee, picking your own fruit which you will take home later, are some of the alternatives that can be experienced at Mercado Ferrando. In the past years this area has had a strong take-off and has seen the birth of countless gastronomic ventures and night pubs that lure university students but also people in their 30s, 40s and "even more" who look for stylish surroundings where they can dine peacefully and taste new flavors.

Your third stop will be at "La Rambla ", one of the most attractive and characteristic open spaces in the city, daily visited to take walks or practice sports. Approx 30' at leisure to walk around this promenade, go down to the beach or take some pictures. Along the Rambla you will see the typical Uruguayan image, which is people walking with their "Mate" in hand.

Be a winemaker & create your own blend.

A HISTORY OF LIFE AND WINES: Luigi Spinoglio, a history connected with vines and wine.
