TOUR DESCRIPTION:

Leaving port, meet your guide and head towards Ano Mera Village. Located on a hill, Ano Mera village, is a picturesque area, a pretty example of Mediterranean culture in its purest and most authentic form. A beautiful place with breathtaking views, iconic Cycladic atmosphere, long history and culture. Take a brief photo stop on the spot. Afterwards, head to Rizes farmstead to leave a journey back to locals' RIZES (roots). A journey in time and history of an original Mykonian house back in time, where the family produced the livelihood of its own land and domestic animals having even few comforts. Located in the heart of the island, with a traditionally decorated house, folklore workshop, lush gardens, Rizes farmstead revives the daily life of old ancestors and their heritage. Farmstead's verdant garden-fresh seasonal vegetables, carefully selected, are the base of its every day fresh cooked traditional dishes. Host and guide to this experience, is a Mykonian family that continues to live with the tradition and customs that one generation delivers to the next. They will open the door of their home to guests, to travel together in history, the daily way of life and the unique local flavors of Mykonian cuisine! Homemade pies, salads, and spreads, roasted and oven baked vegetable or meat recipes, are some of its served dishes. Vivid flavors and strong aromas are accompanied by the most known Greek aperitifs such as ouzo, tsipouro and wine. After this unique experience, ascend your motor coach back to port.
