TOUR DESCRIPTION:

200 years of history, traditions, love and hard work enclosed in a unique taste experience. This tour will take you to discover how pasta is made. After meeting our guide we will leave the port of Naples by bus and head to Castellammare via highway. After 1 hour we will reach Gragnano, the "City of Pasta". Here you will have the opportunity to visit the museum where you can admire ancient work tools and discover their evolution. Then you will be able to learn the pasta making process and finally taste the famous Gragnano IGP Pasta with a tasting lunch. The pasta's rough texture ensures a perfect embrace of the sauce, creating a culinary delight. Relish the Gragnano IGP Pasta paired with seasonal traditional condiments and locally crafted accompaniments. After lunch and free time to shop we will return to Naples' port.

Tour notes / Additional information for guests' guidance:

People who are able to hop on/off the bus without using the wheelchairs can join the tour. Gluten free and lactose free menus, vegetarian menus available. Not available vegan menus. In the event the featured dishes cannot be prepared, a similar Neapolitan dish will be offered.

What Guests should bring / wear on this tour:

Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.

Please provide 3 selling points for this tour:

- 1.-Learning culture and traditions of the pasta region.
- 2.-ourney through 200 years of history of one of the oldest Pasta family.
- 3.-learn handmade process of baking pasta and how italians love to match each size with different condiments.

TOUR DESCRIPTION:

After meeting our guide, we will leave the port of Naples with a comfortable bus and start our tour of the Campi Flegrei (Phlegrean Fields). The bus will move toward the freeway where you will see Vesuvius, the most famous Volcano in the area. After 40 minutes we will stop at a rest area for a short break. Once you arrive at the Campi Flegrei, the panorama will leave you speechless. You will find lakes, mountains, sea and volcanoes all in the same place. The beauty of the landscape and its thermal pools lured the Romans here. Many emperors elected this place as their favorite area for leisure.

We will have the opportunity to admire Lago D'Averno from above, and descending to Lago Fusaro we will have the chance to admire Monte di Cuma and its ruins from above, the archeological site of Cuma the most ancient Greek settlement founded in Italy (external). We will then arrive at Lake Fusaro for a photo stop by the Casina Vanvitelliana before going to Monte di Procida. Photo stop at the panoramic terrace, and then we will continue our way towards Lake Miseno and the stunning Castello Aragonese, which now is a museum. We will then arrive at a restaurant in the Phlegrean Fields for our lunch break. You will taste some of the local foods, freshly cooked with seasonal products, such as Zeppoline fritte, salted fried dough balls infused with the aromatic essence of rosemary, or the delicious eggplant parmigiana. After the appetizer, the discovery of the flavors of Campania will continue with a pasta main course adorned with a seasonal and local condiment and you will conclude your experience with a sweet note. After lunch, we will have free time to relax before heading back to the port of Naples.

Tour notes / Additional information for guests' guidance:

Not suitable for wheelchairs users or guests with climbing difficulties. Lift, elevator or ramp not available. People who are able to hop on/off the bus without using the wheelchair can join the tour. Photo stops may require to hop off the bus at guest's discretion. Gluten and lactose free menu, vegetarian menus available with advance notice. Any allergies or intolerances must be communicated when booking the tour. In the event that the featured dishes cannot be prepared, a similar dish will be offered.  The café at the rest area doesn't accept foreign values nor does it have any exchange machine. We suggest bringing euros in case guests want to buy coffee or something else.  The order of the itinerary may be reversed

What Guests should bring / wear on this tour:

Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.
