Munch Museum, National Gallery and Nobel Center

In order to honour Munch's legacy, Oslo has built the new MUNCH museum, one of the world's largest museums dedicated to a single artist.

About two dozen different museums are concentrated in the capital of Norway . One of the most interesting and favorite tourist attractions is the National Gallery of Oslo. It contains a large collection of works of art, covering the period from the Romantic era to the middle of the last century.

The Nobel Peace Center is the museum for the Nobel Peace Prize, located at the City Hall Square, right in the middle of Oslo. Visit it and experience exhibitions, events and guided tours inspired by the ideas and work of the Nobel Peace Prize laureates.
