Corcovado and Sugar Loaf and Churrasco Lunch

Corcovado and Sugar Loaf are among the "must" of any visit to Rio.

The summit of Corcovado will be reached via a cogwheel railway. It is a twenty-minute trip up the Corcovado Mountain. The 709m hunch-backed Corcovado is famous for the giant statue of Christ the Redeemer that stands on the mountain's summit. An amazing attraction is the view... It is as stunning as from Sugar Loaf but offers different perspectives. You will see the beaches of Copacabana, Ipanema and Leblon and the Rodrigo de Freitas Lagoon.

Then, proceed for lunch at Assador Barbecue House "A typical Churrascaria".

After lunch, visit Sugar Loaf where you will ascend by a two-stage modern cable car with large windows. At Urca Hill, the city at a closer angle calls the guests to a closer look. Taking the second cable car and another 3 minute ride, the second stage is completed and we are at the summit of the Sugar Loaf. An unsurpassable view welcomes the guests. Now, the Guanabara Bay, the beaches, the Corcovado Statue, the Tijuca Forest, the Niteroi Bridge and the majestic mountain range protecting the city.

After a drive along the beaches of Urca, Botafogo and Flamengo, a brief visit of the historic and modern sections of downtown Rio.

Full Day Corcovado & Sugarloaf & City Tour 10h

In the morning you will be picked up in Rio de Janeiro's port to start a wonderful day meeting marvelous Rio de Janeiro. First stop is The Corcovado Mountain with Christ the Redeemer Statue. A specially designed train will take you from the foot of the mountain along a winding road through the magical Tijuca rainforest where you will see some of the enchanting tropical wildlife on constant display in Rio, such as toucans, monkeys and armadillos. At the summit of Corcovado, 700m above sea level, proudly stands the iconic image seen around the world – a 38m high statue of Christ the Savior. But that is not the only breathtaking thing about this place – when up close to the statue you will be overwhelmed by the stunning panoramic view of the city, so high up it seems as though you are truly flying with the birds around you. From the far reaches of Guanabara Bay, to the Maracanã Stadium, all along Sugarloaf Mountain, Copacabana, Ipanema and Gávea Mountain, you can see the whole of Rio de Janeiro.

After you will be taken to the mythical Sugarloaf Mountain, protruding abruptly from out of the ground like an asteroid just fallen from space. A magnificent cable car ride will take you up to Urca Mountain, the stop off between ground level and Sugarloaf. From there you can enjoy a smooth cocktail or sample some of Brazil's many signature dishes. Once arriving at the top of Sugarloaf Mountain you will see the captivating beauty of Rio from a different angle, To your left you can see Copacabana beach stretching off into the distance, and on the horizon the faint outlines of Two Brothers and Gávea mountains. Below you is the quaint and intimate Red Beach, while to your right you can see across Guanabara Bay to Niteroi and, closer in, Rio's Botafogo and central neighborhoods, with the unmistakable silhouette of Christ the Savior casting its eternal gaze over the city. This trip is essential to gain a different perspective on Rio, and to truly understand its beauty.

After descending the mountain, we will head into the Historical Center with its colonial architecture including many old churches still in use. The cobbled streets and bright colors are a stark contrast to the whitewashed, sun soaked streets of Ipanema but in many ways are part of the authentic, nearly-forgotten historical Rio, and one can almost feel the hustle and bustle of hundreds of years ago when these streets were filled with merchants and citizens of the Portuguese Empire, locals, immigrants etc
